KUHIO TO QUIT WASHINGTON SAYS RUMOR; D. E. METZGER WILLING TO SUCCEED PRINCE

MANY CANDIDATES IN FIELD FOR ANY JOB
OPEN OR LIABLE TO BE OPEN IN FUTURE

With the report which has just arrived from San Francisco that Delegate Kuhio may not run for office again, and in any event will not return to Washington in the near future, but will journey to Honolulu from Paso Robles, where he is now recovering from an illness, within a short time; and with the report which has come from Hilo that Senator Delbert E. Metzger is out for the place now occupied by the Prince, a new and important political situation has cropped up, which promises to develop in an interesting manner.

In the meantime former Governor George R. Carter declines to make public positively his position relative to the delegation.

He says if the people want him he will run.

Prince Kuhio is expected here shortly. Reports from Paso Robles are that he has recovered, but wishes to return here rather than return to Washington. Sam Parker is with him at the springs, and the two may journey back in company.

While new candidates for elective and appointive jobs are springing up daily, the new political party forming on this island is growing, its membership is now said to be more than 2500. A meeting of the members has not yet been called. The statement made some time ago that this new party is exclusively Hawaiian is denied; for the organizers say it embraces all voters, only having as one of its cardinal principles that the Hawaiians shall be given a "square deal."

There is a good deal of talk now about Palmer Woods and what, if any, position he will set under the new administration. Woods has been in town for some time. It is known definitely now that Governor Pinkham recommended Woods to U. S. District Attorney Jeff McCann for the U. S. marshalship, but it is almost as definitely known that McCann does not favor this recommendation, and has another man in view for the place. Only guesses can be made as to who this man is. J. J. Smiddy, former road engineer of the city and county, has the backing and endorsement of the territorial Democratic central committee for the place. B. G. Rivenburgh is mentioned also for the job; also his name is heard as the next postmaster of Honolulu. William Fennell, liquor license inspector, is out for the marshalship job.

McCann is not saying who he favors, though he has let it be dropped that he is not strongly in favor of Woods. Democratic politicians say that Woods is going to be cared for. There were rumors about this week that he would be given the place of Joshua Tucker, land commissioner. The governor's appointment was confirmed by the last legislature, which seems to give him a legal though perhaps not an ethical right to hold on until the expiration of his present term.

More candidates are heard for mayor. John Lane is said to have the mayor bug. So, it is said, has Archie Mahaulu. This brings the number of reported candidates, not counting Mayor Bern, up to seven. The other five being H. E. Murray, Charles Chillingworth, Paul Isenberg, Joel C. Cohen and Chas. Huxtable.

PATY OF OPINION THE PLEASANTON WILL NOT ASK FOR LIQUOR PERMIT

George W. Paty, agent of the local branch of the Anti-Saloon League, at a meeting of the members of that organization yesterday afternoon, stated that he does not believe the Pleasanton hotel will apply to the liquor license commission for a permit to sell liquor. Giving the reason for his belief, he said that it now is evident that the hotel will not be able to secure as signers of its petition a majority of the property holders within 1000 feet of the establishment.

Speaking of the matter this morning Mr. Paty said that, according to investigations made by him, he believes the majority of the property holders already have signed the petition drawn up by the Anti-Saloon League opposing the granting of a permit to the hotel company.

"I understand that a number of the present signers of the hotel petition are persons residing outside the 1000-foot limit," said Mr. Paty. "I also have heard that a number of the signers have no written leases. Therefore these names would not count in the final reckoning. I have made a careful study of the situation and believe that the Anti-Saloon League now has the majority of the property holders as signers of its petition."

Among other matters of business, the league voted to adopt the report of Dr. John W. Wadman, superintendent of the organization, which concerns the recent investigation of the temperance situation which he made on the other islands.

LOCAL KOREANS VOTE IN FAVOR OF ASSOCIATION

Meeting Last Night Sees Steps
Taken Toward Early Organization of Y. M. C. A.

Through a unanimous vote in favor of the project, and an urgent request for early action, steps were taken last night toward the permanent organization in Honolulu of a Korean Young Men's Christian Association. Prominent local Koreans to the number of 67 met in the office of the Korean National Association with representatives of the central association, and, after listening to several interesting talks concerning the benefits which would be derived from such an organization, decided to carry out the undertaking.

The meeting was presided over by the pastor of the Korean Episcopal church. Rev. R. Elmer Smith made a brief address on the work of the Young Men's Christian Association, which was interpreted by S. H. Choi, an association worker who recently arrived in Honolulu from Seoul, and who has been appointed secretary of the local Korean association work. Mr. Smith was followed by Paul Super, general secretary of the Honolulu central association, who spoke of the work of the association under the heads of conservation, preparation and cooperation, and brought the greetings of the central branch to the Korean membership.

Young M. Park, editor of the official organ of the local Korean National Association, Dr. Syngman Rhee, principal of the Korean Boarding school, and Glenn E. Jackson, extension work secretary of the central association, spoke on matters concerning association work.

At the close of the meeting it was unanimously voted to organize an association among the Koreans, and a committee is to be appointed to draw up a constitution. This committee will make a report at a meeting which has been called for next Thursday evening. Secretary Choi today will establish an office adjoining the rooms of the Korean National Association.

"The Korean Young Men's Christian Association starts under the most auspicious circumstances," said General Secretary Super this morning. "The leading men of the local Korean community are back of it. Doctor Rhee and Y. M. Park, who will assist in the work, are men of almost international reputation as leaders."

HERMAN LEWIS NOT AFRAID OF FIRE FROM .22

Invites Automobile Man to Try Again When First Effort
Goes Over Desperado

COLORED SOLDIER HAS NO USE FOR ESCAPE

Poses Searching for Negro of 25th Infantry, Without Success Thus Far

As a consequence of the escape of Herman Lewis the recruit desperado of the 25th Infantry from the guard house at Schofield Barracks Wednesday night, two members of the 25th Infantry are in arrest, Corporal Young of M Company who was on watch, and Private Cass of B Company who was posted as a sentinel around the guard house. The story of these men concerning the escape during the investigation that was made did not sound plausible, and although the matter was not reported to Sergeant Jeter who was in charge of the guard until nearly 1:30 a. m. it is believed that he escaped at a much earlier hour. Corporal Young went on watch at 10 p. m. and the prisoners were not verified after that hour. About 11 p. m. Wednesday night Mr. D. P. Solomon, manager of the Officers' Associated Garage was awakened by a noise in his garage. He dressed and went out with a small 22 revolver to investigate and found a colored soldier just leaving the garage, who had probably found that he could not start the car on account of parts of the mechanism having been removed. When he saw that he was caught he feigned to be drunk and mumbled incoherent answers to the questions Mr. Solomon propounded, and at the same time started to back away from the premises. Mr. Solomon ordered him to halt and called to the sentry, but the soldier continued to back away with Mr. Solomon following him up, calling to the sentry and at the same time threatening to shoot. "Aw what's the use of making so much fuss," called the soldier, and Mr. Solomon fired over his head. The man turned and ran away feeling back. "Aw take another shot." The other few cartridges in the revolver all missed. Corporal Young, Jeter and the sentry arrived on the scene just too late to prevent the man's escape. His description agrees fully with that of Herman Lewis who is an expert automobilist and who was probably looking for a car with which to make his escape from the garrison. The clothes he wore were about three sizes too large for him. Some men returning from Honolulu about midnight in a car belonging to Company F, 25th Infantry, claim that a man tried to hold them up on the road near the post with a stick, but they had no time to bother with him. A soldier of the 25th Infantry claims to have come across Lewis while out for a walk in one of the gulches Thursday evening. When asked why he did not bring him in he replied, "De govment may want dat man but I don't."

No news had been received from the posse in search of Lewis up until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

A provost guard consisting of a score of armed soldiers this afternoon is watching the piers from whence three steamers will leave Honolulu this evening—namely, the Wilhelm for Hilo, the Chiyo Maru for Japan and China ports, and the Sonoma for the coast—with a view to apprehending Lewis should he attempt to leave the territory. Another guard is watching the Moanalua, Ewa and Alea districts, the soldiers having orders to shoot to kill should Lewis be taken and offer resistance. Every automobile or other conveyance passing along the roads in the Ewa and Alea districts is being stopped by the soldiers.

ARTILLERY LEAGUE BALL SERIES TO BE FOUGHT OUT TODAY

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 17.—One more game between B and F Batteries to be played today on the 4th Cavalry ball diamond will determine the championship of the 1st Field Artillery. These two batteries having tied for first place in the regular series, B Battery having won yesterday afternoon 3 to 2 in a very spectacular game. The star of the game was Wacker, 3rd baseman for F Battery, who proved a dangerous man at the bat and a sure man in the field, always on the alert and in every play. Frazier started the scoring for B Battery in the second, whacking the ball to right for three bases and scoring on McMenamin's long fly to left. In the last inning with the score tied B Battery filled the bases and Monroe clinched the game with a single to left.

RESCUE PARTY BRAVED DANGER IN LONG HUNT

Graphic Story of Search for Man
Lost in "Hell's Pocket" is Told By Lieut. Crockett

UNTOLD DIFFICULTIES
ENCOUNTERED BY POSSE

Brigade and Department Commanders to Commend Men
for Display of Courage

Dangling from the end of 4000 feet of rope, buffeted against the slimy rock walls of cliffs and cascades on the windward side of the Koolau range, numbed by ice-cold rain, and working at all times in a fog that cut them off from their companions, two officers and two enlisted men of the army imperiled their lives for two days in an almost hopeless attempt to learn the fate of Private W. V. Parker, who has been missing since March 28. For this exhibition of iron nerve and courage 2nd Lieut. Thomas J. Camp, 2nd Infantry; 2nd Lieut. H. F. Nichols, C. A. C.; and Corporal Palmer and Private Miller, Company I, 2nd Infantry, will receive letters from the brigade and department commanders, commending their action.

The rescue party, commanded by 2nd Lieut. Cary I. Crockett, aide to General Edwards, that for five days fought grim nature in the search for the missing coast artilleryman, gave up the task as hopeless, and returned yesterday.

Lieutenant Crockett, who handled the dangerous exploration work with great skill, and who himself deserved great credit and congratulation over the fact that not a single man of his party was injured, tells a graphic story of the search for Parker.

"Hell's Pockets," is the name given by Crockett to the chain of five cascades and pools, in one of the water courses of the windward slope, where two good men went to their death. Only for a few minutes during the entire five days of the search could the workers on the ridge get a view of the valley below them. A clammy blanket of fog enfolded them, and a cold rain fell almost incessantly, wetting them to the skin, and transforming the rotten soil to a lake of mud, in which they had to lie to get what rest they could, between darkness and dawn. The chain of pockets in the waterway Crockett stamps as the most forbidding place he has ever seen. They are so arranged that it is possible for an active man to get down to the third, but absolutely impossible for him to get back again without assistance. Forward progress is also blocked at No. 3 by a sheer drop of some eighty feet.

In this hell-hole, without a morsel of food, and in the cold of the tomb, one of the men, presumably Private Parker, lived from Monday, March 29, until Saturday, April 4. He was in sight of the Macfarlane house, at Ahuimanu, apparently just below him.

SAM PARKER LOSING $100,000 A DAY, HE SAYS

Colonel, While En Route West for His Health, Could See
No Ray of Sunshine

Colonel Samuel Parker, the Hawaiian sportsman and member of the last cabinet of Queen Liliuokalani, was suddenly stricken with serious illness Wednesday in Washington, D. C., says the S. F. Chronicle of April 10. He is being rushed across the continent to San Francisco in order to reach Honolulu as quickly as possible.

Prince Kalaniana'ole, the Hawaiian delegate to congress, and the Princess Kalaniana'ole, who are at Paso Robles, were informed of Colonel Parker's illness.

PARKER IS PESSIMISTIC.
CHICAGO, April 9.—When one is losing money at the rate of $100,000 a day and when one's leg is severely annoyed with rheumatic kinks, one is by no means likely to be in jesting mood or even politely genial. And little does it matter if one happens to be a lineal descendant of King Kamehameha.

Colonel Samuel Parker, one-time prime minister of Hawaii, prominent figure at Republican conventions and millionaire irrigator who is at the Congress Hotel, bewailed the fact that the country is going to the bow wows. Colonel Parker is returning from a visit to Washington.

"I have lost hundreds of thousands," he mourned, "because of the free tariff on sugar. As an irrigator I naturally lose when cultivators cannot market their wares. The country is in a terrible condition."

"Can't you see any hope for the future, Colonel?"

"No hope," answered he. "If the Panama canal were free to American ships—but why talk about it? Talk

Mayor Mitchel is Assassin's Object, Counsel Badly Hurt

John Purroy Mitchel, mayor of New York, who escaped bullets of would-be assassins.

[Associated Press Cable]
NEW YORK, N. Y., April 17.—A man, believed to be demented, attempted to assassinate John Purroy Mitchel outside of the city hall, this morning. Several shots were fired, all of which missed the mayor but wounded Corporation Counsel Polk in the jaw, nearly all of his teeth being shot out. The wound is serious but not necessarily fatal.

The man was arrested and gave the name of David Ross. He is well advanced in years and shabby of dress. He refuses to talk of his attempt at murder.

Col. G. W. Goethals Summoned Before the Canal Tolls Probers

Col. George W. Goethals

[Associated Press Cable]
NEW YORK, April 17.—Col. Geo. W. Goethals today was summoned to appear before the senate Panama canal committee to testify as to the economic features of canal tolls for coastwise vessels. It is believed that Colonel Goethals will favor the repeal of the tolls.

STAINBACK NOW ATTY.-GENL. FOR THE TERRITORY

Simply handing a written oath, sworn to before a notary public, to Governor Pinkham, Ingram Macklin Stainback without more "fuss or feathers" entered upon the duties of attorney-general this morning.

A few minutes after he left the governor's office, he was found studying over a lengthy brief in the Kalahele case.

"There is a good deal of work here to be done," he said. "But I haven't been in office long enough to know exactly how much work there is, or what its nature is."

"Jeff McCann's answer to the charges made against him has been received here, but I haven't had an opportunity to go over it. That will be later. As I understand it, the supreme court wishes the charges investigated."

Mr. Stainback steps into office with two well-known attorneys as his deputies, both of whom are familiar with the work and duties of the office, and have represented the territory in much of its litigation in the past two or three years. Arthur G. Smith and Leslie P. Scott are his as-

HUERTA PARLEYING WITH U. S.—WILSON STANDS PAT AND INSISTS ON SALUTE

Mexican President Suggests Simultaneous Firing of 21 Guns
by America and His Government—President Says "Nothing Doing" and Order Recalling Mobilization of Atlantic Fleet is Not Issued—Pacific Demonstration Recalled and Recall Later Rescinded—Situation More Acute

[Associated Press Cable]
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17.—Provisional President Huerta again is parleying with the United States and demands that both nations, Mexico and the United States, fire a simultaneous salute. President Wilson and the state department are firm in the original stand that the salute demanded of Huerta be accorded to the American flag. The administration is willing to return the salute but prominent officials point out the fact that a simultaneous salute would make the demanded apology worthless.

The intention of recalling the ships bound for Tampico now has been abandoned while the orders, recalling the demonstration of the Pacific fleet, issued this morning have been rescinded following the receipt of Huerta's latest equivocation.

At a meeting of the cabinet, called today, it was agreed that no more time shall be wasted in temporizing. Huerta will be allowed to decide whether the salute of 21 guns shall be accorded the flag on the Dolphin or a flag on shore. In any event the salute must be 21 guns and the American ships will reply in like manner to the Mexican salute.

The situation again is considered very acute and the belief of prominent officials in Washington is that serious complications may follow the latest indiscretion on the part of Huerta.

Return of Salute Will Be Taken as Huerta Recognition

[Associated Press Cable]
MEXICO CITY, Mexico, April 17.—The minister of foreign affairs under the Huerta administration stated today that the government would regard the return of a salute by the United States as tacit recognition of the Huerta administration.

PROMOTION COMMITTEE TO DISCUSS FINANCE AT MEETING THIS P. M.

Finances will form the subject of discussion at the meeting of the Promotion Committee at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, Stangenwald building. At the last meeting of the committee Ed Towse was appointed a committee of one to investigate ways and means for securing funds to cover the present $250-a-month deficit in the committee's finances, and he will present a report of his findings. The question of the Merchants' Association appropriating $1000 for use by the promotionists now is being discussed by that organization.

Plans regarding what the Promotion Committee is doing in preparation for "Pineapple Day" will be presented by Secretary H. P. Wood. Other matters of importance are to come up at the meeting, including the reading of considerable correspondence.

BENEDICT OR BATCH MADE MISTAKE AND NEW MATCHES TO BE PLAYED

The annual meeting of the Beretania Tennis Club will be held tomorrow at 1 p. m. at the courts. A light luncheon will be served, and following this there will be a team match between married and single men.

The last match of this sort was called off, owing to the fact that one of the members was somewhat hazy as to his marital standing, owing to certain technicalities of the divorce court, which had their reflection on the tennis court. This near-bachelor played on the wrong team, under protest, and the whole tournament was eventually called off.

One of the most interesting lunches of the Commercial Club has arranged for some time is promised for next Wednesday noon when the club members will be addressed by Professor T. A. Jagger, volcanologist at Kilauea, who has just returned from Japan, where he made a study of the recent eruption of Mt. Fuji. Professor Jagger's address will be on the subject of the conduct of the Japanese govern-

LOCAL YOUTH OUTWITS THUGS IN BAY CITY

SAN FRANCISCO—Norman Oss, a young capitalist from Honolulu, who arrived on the Sierra en route to Seattle, proved too quick-witted for a brace of bunco men last night, and as a result James Roghe, alias James Wilson, an old-time crook with a long record, is now in the city prison.

Oss, who is a guest at the Hotel Stewart, was on his way to this city from Oakland when a young man engaged him in conversation, confiding to him that he was a millionaire's son touring the world. The two exchanged confidences until they reached this side of the bay, when the young man begged him to meet his "aged and wealthy uncle" (Roache), who was awaiting him.

The two repaired to a saloon at Steuart and Market streets, where "uncle" and "nephew" engaged in matching coins, finally asking Oss to match for $100. That let the cat out of the bag. Oss darted out to the sidewalk and told Patrolman R. H. Ritter that he had two men to arrest in the saloon.

Mr. Oss was formerly in the employ of the O. R. & L. Co.

Esther Puu was given a divorce this morning by Judge Whitney of the circuit court. She charged her husband, George Puu, with desertion. The court awarded her the custody of the minor child of the marriage.

The board of health meeting which was scheduled for yesterday afternoon was postponed until next week, due to the absence of a quorum. Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, president of the board, is out of the city at present, but will be back before the meeting.

There were 11 deaths from tuberculosis for the first 15 days of April, according to the records of the territorial board of health. There was one death by typhoid fever and one by dip-
